Preliminaries

Within a state of great bliss, I am a guru-yidam.
From my body, arisen clearly in this state,
A profusion of light-rays radiates to the ten directions,
Highlighting the glory of the environment and the beings therein.
All become perfectly arrayed with only excellent qualities, infinitely pure.

Out of a lustrously positive, vast state of mind,
I and all beings, my mothers, throughout space,
From now till enlightenment, take safe direction
From the gurus and the Three Supreme Gems.

Namo gurubhya
Namo buddhaya,
Namo dharmaya,
Namo sanghaya. (3x)

For the sake of all beings, my mothers,
I transform into a guru-yidam,
And thus shall secure all limited beings
In a guru-yidam’s supreme state. (3x)

For the sake of all beings, my mothers,
I shall quickly, quickly, in this very life,
Attain the high state
Of a primordial Buddha-guru-yidam.

I shall liberate all beings, my mothers, from suffering
And secure them in the stage of a Buddha’s great bliss.
To this end, I now shall practice
The profound path of guru-yidam yoga.

(Repeat verses 5 and 6 three times.)

OM AH HUM. (3x)

Pure clouds of outer, inner, and hidden offerings,
Fearsome items and objects to bond us closely
Spread out beyond the range of thought,
Pervading the reaches of space, the earth, and the sky.
In essence, they are deep awareness,
In aspect, inner offerings and offering items;
The function of each, as objects enjoyed by the six sensors,
Is to enhance a special deep awareness of bliss and voidness.
Visualization

In the vast heavens of inseparable bliss and voidness,
Amidst billowing clouds of Samantabhadra offerings,
At the crest of a wish-granting tree,
Embellished with leaves, flowers, and fruit,
Is a lion-throne, ablaze with precious gems,
With cushions of lotus, sun, and full moon.

Upon them, sits my root guru, kind in three ways,
In essence, all Buddhas,
In aspect, a saffron-robed monk,
With one face, two arms, and a radiant white smile.
Your right hand is in the gesture of expounding the Dharma,
Your left in meditation pose cradles an alms bowl brimming with nectar.
You are draped with three robes of lustrous saffron
And your head is graced by a pandit’s gold-colored hat.

In your heart sits a Vajradhara, ruler of the all-pervasive,
With a blue-colored body, one face, and two arms,
Holding vajra and bell, and embracing Vajradhatu Ishvari:
They delight in the play of co-arising bliss and voidness,
Are adorned with jewel ornaments of many designs,
And arrayed with garments of heavenly silk.

Emblazoned with the signs and exemplary features of a Buddha,
You yourself are radiant with thousands of light-rays,
Sitting in the vajra-position, enhaloed by a five-colored rainbow.
Totally pure, your aggregate factors are the five Blissfully Progressed;
Your four elements are the four mothers;
The stimulators of your senses, your channels, sinews, and joints
Are actual examples of the bodhisattvas.
The hairs of your pores are the twenty-one thousand arhats;
Your limbs, the furious powerful ones;
Your light-rays are directional protectors,
and yaksha and guhyaka guardians of wealth;
While worldly gods could be cushions for your feet.

Surrounding you in successive rings
Is an encircling sea of my actual and lineage gurus,
Yidams with hosts of mandala figures,
Buddhas, bodhisattvas, viras, dakinis,
And protectors of the teachings.
The three gateways of each are marked with three vajras.
From the syllable HUM, hooked light-rays invite Deep awareness beings from their natural abodes
To merge inseparably and make them secured.

You who are the sources of goodness, bliss,
    and perfection throughout the three times,
O root and lineage gurus, yidams, Three Supreme Gems,
Viras, dakinis, and Dharma-protectors with legions of guards,
By the power of compassion, come forth and stay fast.

Although everything is free of true coming and going,
Still you possess the enlightening activity of omniscience and affection
To arise in whatever manners accord with the thoughts
Of varying disciples who wish to be tamed.
Hallowed guardians for safe direction, come forth with your entourage.

OM GURU BUDDHA BODHISATTVA DHARMAPALA
    SAPARIWARA E-HYE-HIH.
JAH HUM BAM HOH – the awareness and bonding beings become nondual.

Prostration

With compassion, in the sphere of great bliss,
You direct us even to a state of Three Buddha-Bodies in this very instant,
As gurus with jewel-like bodies.
Holders of the Vajras, we prostrate at your lotus-feet.

With deep awareness of all the infinite Triumphant,
You impart, with supreme skillful means, whatever will tame,
As portrayers of a dance of those clad in saffron.
Hallowed guardians for safe direction, we prostrate at your feet.

Your states of all faults and their habits extracted,
And your treasures of fathomless jewel-like qualities
Are the sole gateways to benefit and bliss, baring none.
Ennobling, impeccable gurus, we prostrate at your feet.

You are actual examples of all the Buddhas, spiritual teachers of even the gods,
Sources of eighty-four thousand pure Dharmas;
You tower in the midst of all hosts of aryas.
Kindly gurus, we prostrate to you.
With belief in these facts and with firm conviction,
With an ocean of lyric praise, and with emanated bodies
As numerous as the atoms of the world,
We offer prostration to you gurus of three times,
    dwelling in the ten directions,
To the Three Supreme Gems, and all worthy of homage.

Offerings

Guardians for safe direction, ennobling, impeccable gurus,
    together with entourage,
We present you with oceans of clouds of various offerings.

From expansive, well-fashioned vessels, radiant and precious,
Four streams of purifying nectars gently flow forth.

Beautiful flowers and trees in blossom
With bouquets and garlands, exquisitely arranged,
Fill the earth and the sky.

Blue monsoon clouds of the beryl-like smoke
Of fragrant incense billow up to the highways of the gods.

Light from suns and moons, glittering gems,
    And scores of flaming lamps
Joyfully frolic, dispelling the darkness
Of a thousand, a million, a billion worlds.

Vast seas of scented waters imbued with the fragrance
Of saffron, sandalwood, and camphor
Swirl out to the horizons.

Delicacies of gods and humans,
Beverages, savories, and feasts
With ingredients of a hundred flavors
Amass a Mount Meru.

Music from an endless variety of instruments
Blends into a symphony and fills the three realms.

Goddesses of outer and inner desirable objects,
Holding symbols of sights and sounds,
Fragrances, tastes, and physical sensations
Pervade all directions.
Mount Meru and four island-worlds a billion times over,
The precious seven royal fixtures, the precious royal trappings, and more,
Perfectly delightful environments and those dwelling within,
And a magnificent treasure of everything desirable that gods and humans enjoy –
We present them all, with truly joyous minds,
O guardians for safe direction, treasures of compassion,
Best of all eminent fields for growing a positive force.

To please you, ennobling, immaculate gurus,
We offer these objects actually arrayed and those envisioned
As a pleasure grove on the shore of a wish-granting sea.
It captivates everyone’s minds with fully bloomed lotuses of a thousand petals –
Offering objects arisen from the lustrous impulses of samsara and nirvana;
Sparkles everywhere with flowers –
The worldly and transworldly constructive deeds of our own and others' three gateways of action;
Diffuses a myriad fragrances – Samantabhadra offerings;
And bears sumptuous fruit – the three trainings, two stages, and five paths.

We offer a libation of China tea the color of saffron,
Rich in a hundred flavors, with a delicate bouquet,
And five hooks, five lamps and so forth
Purified, transformed, and expanded into a sea of nectar.

We offer even beautiful, voluptuous, illusion-like consorts, a host of messenger dakinis –
Born from place, from mantra, and simultaneously born –
Having slender figures, aglow with vibrant youth,
And skilled in the sixty-four arts of love.

We offer you the deepest mind of bodhichitta:
The great deep awareness of co-arising bliss, free from obstructions,
The sphere free from fantasy about everything’s nature,
Which inseparably establishes appearances spontaneously,
And is beyond all words, thought, and expression.

We offer a pharmacopoeia of potent medicine
To cure the plagues of the four hundred twenty-four disturbing emotions,
And ourselves as servants to please you:
Pray keep us in your service as long as the heavens endure.
The Remaining Five Branches of the Seven-Part Practice

38 Before the eyes of those having great compassion,
We openly admit, with minds of regret,
Whatever destructive, negative deeds we have done
from beginningless time,
Have caused others to do, or in which we have rejoiced;
We vow not to repeat them again.

39 (Realizing that) everything is free from features
Of inherent existence and arises like a dream,
We sincerely rejoice in the lustrous actions that gave rise
To whatever comfort and happiness
Any ordinary being or arya has enjoyed.

40 We request a rain of profound and vast Dharma to fall
From the myriad billowing clouds of your eminent wisdom and affection
To enhance, sustain, and propagate a garden of moon-flowers
Of benefit and bliss for us infinite beings.

41 Though your vajra-bodies are subject to neither birth nor death,
And are vessels that are kings with the authority of being unified pairs,
Please abide forever, in keeping with our wishes:
Do not pass beyond sorrow till samsara's end.

42 We dedicate the network of lustrous positive force thus created
That, as its legacy, we never be parted, in all future lives,
From ennobling, impeccable gurus, kind in three ways,
And that we may attain the authority of being a Vajradhara unified pair.

The Nine-Line Migtsema Verse of Tsongkhapa

You are mighty Vajradharas – sources of all actual attainments,
Avalokitshvaras – great treasures of unaimed affection,
Manjushris – commanders of flawless wisdom,
Vajrapanis -- destroyers of all hordes of demonic forces, Lozang-dragpas – crown jewels of the erudite masters of the Land of Snows,
Guru-yidams, incorporating all sources of safe direction,
We make you requests with three gateways of respect:
Inspire us and all others to ripen and set ourselves free.
Direct us to the supreme and common actual attainments.
Ngödrub künjung tuwang dorjey-chang,
Migmey tseway terchen chenray-zi,
Drimey kyenpay wangpo jampel-yang,
Düpung malü jomdzay sangway-dag,
Gangchen kaypay tsgogyen lozang-drag,
Kyabnay kündü lama lhagpay-lha,
Gosum güpay gonay sölwa-deb,
Rangzhen minching drölwar jingyi-lab,
Chogdang tünmong ngödrub tseldu-söl.

(Repeat many times.)

Requests

You are sources of excellent qualities
And vast oceans of ethical discipline,
Swelling with a treasure of gems of encyclopedic learning.
Wearers of saffron, you are masters who are second Kings of the Sages.
Holders of the Elders’ Vinaya, we make you requests.

You possess the ten qualities that render you suitable
To indicate the path of the Blissfully Progressed;
Representatives of all the Triumphant Ones,
You are Lords of the Dharma.
Mahayana spiritual teachers, we make you requests.

Your three gateways of action are well-tamed;
You are highly intelligent, patient, and honest,
Without guile or pretense,
Learned in rituals and tantras,
Endowed with both sets of ten qualities,
And skilled in drawing and explaining.
Foremost Holders of the Vajras, we make you requests.

To us beings of this degenerate age,
Unfit to be tamed by the countless Buddhas of the past and difficult to curb,
You show, as it is, the excellent path of the Blissfully Progressed.
Compassionate guardians for safe direction, we make you requests.

The daylight hours of the Sage's sun have set
And now you enact the Triumphant Ones' deeds
For us wandering masses bereft of guardians or a safe direction.
Compassionate guardians for safe direction, we make you requests.
Even a single hair from your pores is for us
A field for growing positive force more highly praised
Than all the Triumphant of the three times and the ten directions.
Compassionate guardians for safe direction, we make you requests.

From a stunningly beautiful mirage-like lattice of skillful means,
The circles that adorn your Blissfully Progressed Three Bodies
Manifest in ordinary forms to lead us who wander.
Compassionate guardians for safe direction, we make you requests.

Your aggregates, elements, the stimulators of your senses, and your limbs
Are in nature the five Buddha-family fathers, mothers,
Bodhisattvas, and the furious mighty protectors —
The very essence of the Three Supreme Gems.
Foremost gurus, we make you requests.

Unfolding from the play of omniscient deep awareness,
You are the quintessence of ten million mandala cycles,
The all-pervading rulers of the hundred Buddha-traits,
Chief among the Holders of the Vajras.
Unified pair First Guardians, we make you requests.

Without obscurations, inseparable from the play of co-arising bliss,
The nature of all things, pervading everything in motion and at rest,
Samantabhadras free of beginning and end;
Actual examples of deepest bodhichitta, we make you requests.

Special Requests

You are our gurus; you are our yidams;
You are our dakinis and Dharma-protectors.
From this moment, till our enlightenment,
We shall seek safe direction from none other than you.
In this life, the bardo, till the end of all rebirths,
Hook us fast with your compassion.
Free us from the fears of samsara and complacent nirvana;
Direct us to all actual attainments;
Be our constant companions;
And guard against all interference. (3x)

By the force of having thus been requested three times,
From the centers of our guru’s body, speech, and mind,
White, red, and dark blue nectars and rays
Stream forth one by one and then all together.
They dissolve into our own three centers,
One by one, and then all together.
Thereby, we are purged of our four obstructions,
Receive the four totally pure empowerments,
And attain the Four Buddha-Bodies.
By a replica guru happily dissolving into us,
We become uplifted and inspired.

(If making a ritual offering feast of tsog, go to verse 55 at the end.)

The Stages of the Path

By the force of having made offerings
And having respectfully made you requests,
O hallowed, ennobling, impeccable gurus,
Best fields for growing a positive force,
Inspire us to joyfully follow under your care,
O guardians and roots of bliss and well-being.

Inspire us to realize that this life of respites and enrichments
Is found but once, is difficult to obtain, and is easily lost,
And thus, undistracted by meaningless affairs of this life,
To partake of its essence and make it worthwhile.

Inspire us to become aghast at the searing blaze of suffering in the worse realms,
And thus, from the depths of our hearts,

to take safe direction from the Three Supreme Gems,
Readily to strive to avoid any negative behavior,
And to strengthen our networks of positive actions in numerous ways.
Inspire us to develop an intense longing to be free
From this monstrous ocean of boundless and vicious existence,
In which we are violently tossed by waves of disturbing urges and upsetting emotions
And are plagued by hordes of sea monsters – the three types of sufferings.

Inspire us to rid ourselves of the minds that view
This unbearable dungeon of recurring existence as a pleasure grove,
And instead, to partake of the treasures of the threefold training and of the Aryas’ jewels,
And thereby to hoist the victory banner of liberation.

Inspire us to consider how all these pitiful beings have been our mothers
And have raised us in kindness again and again,
And thus to develop unaffected compassion
Like that of a loving mother for her darling child.

Inspire us to increase others’ comfort and joy,
By thinking that others and we are no different:
No one wishes even the slightest suffering,
Nor is ever content with the happiness he or she has.

Inspire us to see that this chronic disease of self-cherishing
Is the cause giving rise to our unsought suffering,
And thus, begrudging it as what is to blame,
To destroy the monstrous demon of selfishness.

Inspire us to see that the mind that cherishes our mothers and would secure them in bliss
Is the gateway leading to infinite virtues,
And thus to cherish these wandering beings more than our lives,
Even should they loom up as our enemies.

In brief, inspire us to develop the minds that understand the distinctions between
The faults of infantile beings slaving for their selfish ends alone
And the virtues of the Kings of Sages working solely for the sake of others,
And thus, to be able to equalize and exchange our attitudes concerning others and ourselves.

Since cherishing ourselves is the doorway to all torment,
While cherishing our mothers is the foundation for everything good,
Inspire us to make our core practice
The yoga of exchanging others for ourselves.
Therefore, compassionate, ennobling, impeccable gurus,
Inspire us that all the negative forces, obstacles, and sufferings
Of wandering beings, our mothers, ripen upon us right now,
And that we may impart our happiness and positive forces to others
And thereby secure all wanderers in bliss. (3x)

Inspire us to see that even if the fruits of our negative actions
Overwhelm the environment and us dwelling therein,
And unwished for sufferings pour down like rain,
These serve as causes exhausting the results of our destructive impulses,
And thus, to draft all miserable conditions into the path.

In short, inspire us that, through practicing five forces,
the quintessence of all Dharma,
We may transform whatever appearances arise – be they good or bad –
Into paths augmenting the two bodhichittas
And thus, attune ourselves solely to comfort of mind.

Inspire us that, by the skillful means of the four acts of use,
We may adapt to meditation whatever we occasion to meet,
And may put into practice the close bonds and trainings of cleansing our attitudes,
Thus rendering this life of respites and enrichments worthwhile.

Inspire us that, through love and compassion
Conjoined with the wondrous method of mounting giving and taking upon the breath,
And through an exceptional wish,
We may become bodhichitta adepts to rescue beings
Floundering in the monstrous ocean of recurring existence.

Optional:

The Eight Verses for Cleansing One’s Attitudes

(1) May we always cherish all limited beings
By considering how far superior they are
To wish-granting gems
For actualizing the supreme aim.

(2) Whenever we come into anyone’s company,
May we regard ourselves as more lowly than all
And, from the depths of our hearts, hold others as supreme.
(3) Whatever we are doing, may we check the flow of our minds,
And the moment that disturbing emotions arise,
Since they debilitate ourselves and others,
May we confront and avert them with forceful means.

(4) Whenever we see beings instinctively cruel,
Overpowered by negativities and serious problems,
May we cherish them as difficult to find
As discovering a treasure of gems.

(5) When others, out of envy, treat us unfairly
With scolding, insults, and more,
May we accept the loss upon ourselves
And offer the victory to others.

(6) Even if someone whom we have helped
And from whom we harbor great expectations
Were to harm us completely unfairly,
May we view him or her as a hallowed teacher.

(7) In short, may we offer to all our mothers, both actually and indirectly,
Whatever will benefit and bring them joy;
And may we hiddenly accept on ourselves
All our mothers’ troubles and woes.

(8) Through a mind untarnished by stains from thoughts
About these eight transitory things in life,
And that knows all phenomena as an illusion,
May we set ourselves free from all our clinging
And thus release ourselves from our bondage at last.

Inspire us to tame our mind-streams with pure bodhisattva vows,
The single path journeyed by all the Triumphant of the three times
And to exert ourselves readily in the practice
Of the three Mahayana ethical disciplines.

Inspire us to perfect far-reaching generosity
Through the guideline instructions for enhancing
The mind that gives freely, without attachment,
Namely transforming our bodies, wealth, and the networks
Of our constructive actions of the three times
Into the objects desired by each limited being.
Inspire us to perfect the far-reaching ethical disciplines
Not to transgress the bounds prescribed
By the pratimoksha, bodhisattva, or tantric vows – even at the cost of our lives –
To build up constructive actions,
And to work for the sake of limited beings.

Inspire us to perfect the far-reaching patience
That even if all beings in the nine states of rebirth
Throughout the three realms, baring none,
Become angry with us, humiliate, criticize, threaten,
or even attempt to take our lives,
We remain unperturbed, and work for their benefit in response to their harm.

Inspire us to perfect far-reaching joyous perseverance
That even if, for the sake of each limited being, we must remain
For an ocean of eons in the fires of an Uninterrupted Hell,
With compassion, we remain undiscouraged,
And strive ever onward for supreme enlightenment.

Inspire us to perfect far-reaching constancy of mind –
Through absorbed concentration rid of the faults of dullness, flightiness, and mental wandering,
And totally absorbed, single-pointedly,
On the abiding nature of all things –
Their total absence of true existence.

Inspire us to perfect far-reaching discriminating awareness
Through the yoga on space-like voidness,
Which is total absorption on the deepest fact,
Conjoined with great bliss from a sense of fitness
Induced by discriminating awareness investigating the particulars of suchness.

Inspire us to perfect absorbed concentration on illusion-like voidness,
By realizing how all outer and inner phenomena
Lack true existence, yet still appear
Like illusions, dreams, or the moon’s image in a clear lake.

Recurring existence and beyond lack even an atom of inherent nature,
While cause and effect and dependent arising are never wrong.
Inspire us that these two points dawn, not in contradiction,
but in total agreement,
And thus, that we realize the import of Nagarjuna’s thought.
Inspire us to traverse, thereafter, the labyrinth ocean of the tantra classes
Through your kindness as our navigators, Vajra-Holders,
And to keep the close bonds and vows dearer than our lives:
This is the root of the actual attainments.

Inspire us that, through the first-stage yoga
Of transforming birth, death, and bardo into the Triumphant Three Bodies,
We purge all stains of ordinary appearance-making and clinging,
So that whatever appears arises as the body of a yidam.

Inspire us that, by setting you, our guardians, with the nails on your feet
At the center of the eight petals at our hearts in our central channels,
We actualize the path of a unified pair:
A clear light mind and illusory body, in this very life.

Inspire us that, if we have not completed the points of the path
at the time of our deaths,
We pass on to pure lands, either by the forceful means
Of transference into the guru full state
Or through the instructions for properly applying the five forces.

In short, inspire us, O guardians, to follow inseparably
Under your care in all our lives, from one to the next,
And thus, to become chiefs among your spiritual offspring,
Holding every hidden feature of your body, speech, and mind.

O guardians, wherever you manifest Buddhahood,
Please make everything propitious for us to come
Among the very first of your circle,
Thus, spontaneously fulfilling, without any effort,
All our provisional and ultimate wishes and needs.

Having made you requests like these,
Supreme gurus, we further entreat you:
To bring inspiration, happily alight on the crowns of our heads
And settle once more with the radiant nails on your feet
At the corollas of our lotus-hearts.
Dedication

We dedicate the lustrous constructive steps, taken in this way,
As causes for fulfilling, without an exception,
The deeds and prayers of all Blissfully Progressed and their spiritual offspring, throughout the three times,
And for upholding the hallowed Dharma of the scriptures
and their realization.
By that force, may we never be parted, in all our lives,
From the Supreme Vehicle's four wheels,
And thus, may we reach the end of our journeys
On the paths of renunciation, bodhichitta, correct view, and two stages.

Verses for Propitiousness

With whatever positive features there are
In the luster of samsara or the peace beyond,
May all be propitious for setting ourselves free, here and now,
from all hardships and torment,
And thus, for savoring the splendors and glories of a celestial treasure
Of everything provisionally and ultimately constructive and good.

May all be propitious for the Sage's teachings to endure ever onward
Through the centers of the Dharma of Lozang-dragpa, the omniscient,
Being filled with hosts of yogis and monastics
Single-pointedly striving to master the three pure trainings.

May all be propitious for us to make our requests
To the supreme guru-yidam from the time of our youths,
And inspired through that by Lozang-dragpa,
For us spontaneously to benefit others
With a Lozang-Vajradhara state.

May all be propitious for our sum of enrichments wished for in life
To swell like a lake in the monsoon rains,
And for our rebirths of respite in faultless families to flow without break,
That we may pass day and night with the hallowed Dharma of Lozang,
And thus savor every splendid and glorious attainment.

By whatever buildup of constructive forces there may be
From what all of us have done and shall continue to do from now till enlightenment,
May all be propitious for the Bodies of Form
Of ennobling, impeccable hallowed ones
To remain in this land, immutable like vajras.
Optional:

The Lamrim Dedication Prayer

(1) By however much we have built up our two networks as vast as space, From our longtime efforts in this practice, May we become Commanders among the Triumphant Ones, Universal Leaders for wanderers with wisdom-eyes blinded by ignorance.

(2) Even if we do not reach this state, May we follow under the affectionate care of Manjushri, for all our lives, And thus always finding the supreme path in which All the stages of the teachings are complete, May we please the Triumphant Ones with our practice.

(3) With the points of the path as we have understood them, And with skillful means drawn from strong affectionate care, May we clear the darkness from wanderers’ minds, So that the Triumphant Ones’ teachings are enduringly held.

(4) With our hearts going out with great compassion In whatever direction the precious-most teachings Have not yet spread, or once spread have declined, May we reveal this treasure of happiness and aid.

(5) Through these very stages of the path to enlightenment, Which have arisen so well through the wondrous influence of the Triumphant and their spiritual offspring, May we direct to glory the minds of those who wish liberation And enduringly further the Triumphant Ones’ deeds.

(6) With the help of all human and nonhuman beings Who make things conducive and eliminate adversity for practicing the excellent path, May we never be parted, in all of our lifetimes, From the purest path the Triumphant Ones praise.

(7) Whenever we strive to properly practice The ten Dharma actions to support Mahayana, May mighty ones always assist as companions And oceans of propitiousness spread everywhere.
Optional Concluding Verses

May our glorious gurus live long stable lives;
May joy and happiness abound as extensively as space;
And may we and all others, baring none, be inspired
To build up our networks and cleanse away obstacles,
And thus quickly become enlightened Buddhas.

In this land surrounded by a ring of snow mountains,
May the lotus-feet of Avalokiteshvara, Tenzin-gyatso,
The spring for all benefit and joy,
Remain firmly planted till samsara’s end.

Offering a Feast of Tsog

OM AH HUM. (3x)
Pure clouds of outer, inner, and hidden offerings,
Fearsome items and objects to bond us closely
Spread out beyond the range of thought,
Pervading the reaches of space, the earth, and the sky.
In essence, they are deep awareness,
In aspect, inner offerings and offering items;
The function of each, as objects enjoyed by the six sensors,
Is to enhance a special deep awareness of bliss and voidness.

E-ma-ho! In the grand play of deep awareness,
All lands and regions are vajra-fields;
The structures majestic vajra-palaces;
Oceans of clouds of Samantabhadra offerings billow forth.

The objects of enjoyment possess every glory wished;
All dwelling therein are actual viras and virinis;
Not even the words “impurity” or “flaw” exist:
Nothing is less than infinitely pure.

HUM – within a state of Dharmakaya in which all fabricating is absolutely still,
On top of a turbulent wind and blazing fire,
Upon the crown of a tripod of three human heads:
AH – within a ritual skullcup,
OM – the ingredients brilliantly appear one by one.
Standing above them are an OM, AH, and HUM, Each sparkling with its brilliant color.
The wind becomes turbulent; the fire flares; the ingredients melt.
From their boiling, vapors billow copiously forth.

From the triad of syllables, a profusion of light-rays
Radiates to the ten directions,
Inviting the three vajras, together with nectars.
They dissolve into the respective three syllables,
Which then melt into nectar and blend with the ingredients,
Purifying, transforming and expanding them.
E-ma-ho! They become an ocean
Glittering with every glory wished.

OM AH HUM. (3x)

Root and lineage gurus, compassionate in nature,
Yidams with hosts of deities,
Sources of safe direction – Three Supreme Gems,
Viras, Dakinis, and Dharma-protectors with legions of guards,
We invite and request you:
Please grace with your presence this offering site.

Amidst an ocean of clouds of outer, inner, and hidden offerings,
On this elegant throne fashioned from precious gems,
Firmly plant your radiant feet
And direct us, who strive for supreme attainment,
To every actual attainment we might wish.

Ho! This ocean of an offering feast of untainted nectars
Made glorious by samadhi, mantra, and mudra,
We offer to please you hosts of root and lineage gurus.
OM AH HUM. Having served you to contentment
With an array of everything glorious anyone might wish,

You stand as the source of all actual attainments,
We invite you now, great heroic vira,
Having shed all minds of conceptual thought,
Continually enjoy our ritual feast.
Alala-ho!
